BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

R.Q. With refce to Govt Progs Nr. G.6509-11/G.Sn 34-10-38 dated the 10th May 1911 states that a declaration has been filed before the City Magistrate Mysore to the effect that Mr. H.S. Venkata Rao, the present editor of the Sadhvi has ceased to be the editor and Mr. S. Ramanathiah is to take his place as editor of the paper NOTES AND ORDERS. and requests instructions as to whether under the Newspapers Regln the sanction of Govt. is necessary when a change of editors takes place.

Notes and Orders

Nothing is explicitly stated in the Regulation as regards the question whether the permission of Govt is necessary when a change of editors & takes place. But it is quite clear from sections 2 and 4 of the Regulation that such was the intention with which the Regulation was enacted; Otherwise, the very object of the Regulation will be defeated.

The fact that particulars about the status and antecedents of persons applying for permission to start papers are ascertained in the first instance and that permission is granted ordinarily only after the said particulars are found satisfactory, also point to the above view, Viz, that permission is necessary when there is a change of editors.

(2) As regards the declaration stated to have been filed before the City Magistrate, it may be observed that under Act XXV of 1867 the Editor of a paper is not bound to make any declaration but only its printer or publisher. It is possible however that the reason for the declaration now made is as in the fact that the editor of the paper in question is also its printer and publisher.

3) There appears to be no doubt on the point that the editor of a newspaper, at any time or period of its existence, should have obtained the permission of Govt to edit such paper under the Newspapers Regulation. Hence, On any change of editorship the permission granted to the outgoing editor ceases to have effect, and the new editor is bound to obtain permission independently on his own behalf (Please see also the Secy's remarks to the same effect on page 5 of the notes in the file, Collection for May 1910).

4) The Dy Comm may be informed accordingly in reply to his reference and he may also be requested to advise Mr. Ramanathiah to apply for permission of Govt. On receipt of such application, permission may be granted without any further enquiry, in view of that already held in the matter, and the notes contained in the collection of papers referred to above -

6) On going over the papers again, I find that Mr Ramanathiah had already applied for permission under the Regulation to edit the paper, at the time of his asking for permission to convert the paper "Sadhvi" into a daily. (Sl. 32 of G. M. 34.), though in the Govt. Order passed on the said application, it was simply stated that there was no objection to the paper being converted into a "daily". It therefore appears desirable to issue an order granting permission to Mr Ramanathiah to edit the paper, without any ref^ce to the present letter from the Dt Court, and without asking for any fresh application from Mr Ramanathiah.

7) It has also to be noted that the fact of the change of editorship and the permission granted to convert the paper into a "daily", have been communicated to the Residency. (Sl 79 in G. M. 129-10.)
